

Provincial funding for hi-tech

570 News

Aug 16, 2010 14:59:07 PM

Be the first to Comment

0 Recommendation\(s\)

Three hi-tech start ups in Waterloo Region are each getting half a million dollars from the province.

The companies will use the money to further their technologies and hire more staff.

It's expected Client Outlook Inc., Dejero Labs and DossierView will create about 100 jobs in the next two years.

The announcement was made at the Lang Tannery building in downtown Kitchener this afternoon by Minister of Research and Innovation and Kitchener-Centre MPP, John Milloy.